

Map – Europe in 1920

Using page 52 of your Student Workbook, create a map of Europe after the Paris Peace Conference.

- 1) Compared with the map of Europe in 1914, what automatically jumps to mind when looking at a map of Europe after the Paris Peace Settlement?

- 2) Thinking about imperialism and national self-determination, which idea dominated the boundaries of Europe after the Paris Peace Settlement? Explain!

3) What group seemed to be ignored during the application of national self-determination? Explain!

4) Comment the application of national self-determination in the following . . .

Polish Corridor (Poland)	Alsace-Lorraine (France)	Sudetenland (Czechoslovakia)	Rhineland (Germany)