Background

This movie was one of the best of 2019. At the 92nd Academy Awards, it was nominated ten times, and won three Academy Awards.

Along with Passchendaele and All Quiet on the Western Front, this film is one of the best depictions of the First World War.

As you watch the movie, write down important details you notice!

Battle Front

After watching the movie, what stood out the most and had the greatest personal impact? Why?

Personal Reflection

At university, you will take courses that focus on broad topics, like the First World War.

Often these courses include a research essay.

You start these research essays by picking a smaller topic, hopefully it will be something that you find personally interesting. Your research consists of asking questions, and then finding answers.

After watching the movie, what topic would you like to know more about?

What questions would you want to research?
