

Video – “One Man’s Revolution: Mao”

1) In what way was China “poorly managed”?

---

---

2) What two forces joined together in 1921?

---

---

3) What did Mao believe was the key to revolution?

---

---

4) After Chiang Kai-Shek became the new leader and ordered a series of extermination campaigns, Mao knew that the Red Army must fight its way out or die. What did Mao decide to do?

---

---

5) What political message were the Communist soldiers trained to spread?

---

---

6) What opposing force did Chiang and the Communists face for a time?

---

---

7) What happened in China following the Japanese surrender in 1945? What were the results?

---

---

---

---

8) Provide details on the changes which occurred in China after Mao proclaimed the People’s Republic of China.

Landlords: _____
_____

Support from the U.S.S.R.: _____
_____

Collectives: _____

The Great Leap Forward: _____
_____
_____
_____

9) What happened when Khrushchev visited Peking in 1960?

---

10) Why did Mao start the Cultural Revolution in 1966?

---

11) List the key elements of this revolution.

---

---

---

12) Why did China decide to cultivate relationships with governments other than the Soviet Union?

---

13) What did these new relationships lead to?

---

---