REGIONALISM & NATIONAL AUTONOMY (1920s)

A New Challenge to Federalism: Regionalism (Pg. 77 – 79)

- Introduction
- The Maritimes
- The Prairies and Rural Ontario
- Quebec
- Western Interests
- Canadians Choose a New Government

Canada's Growing Independence (Pg. 80 - 83)

- Introduction
- The Chanak Crisis
- The Halibut Treaty
- King – Byng Crisis
- The Imperial Conference and the Balfour Report
- The Statute of Westminster

Was Canada More or Less independent by the End of the 1920? (Pg. 84)

Complete the following chart for each section.

Topic	Details

Counter Points Pg. 77 – 84