

The Tide Turns

- 1) Describe the developments in 1942 that started to push the war in favour of the Allies?

The Dieppe Raid (Pg. 142 - 143)

- 2) Describe the conditions that were pushing the Allies to attack the French port of Dieppe.
- 3) What division was selected for the Dieppe Raid?
- 4) What was the plan for the Dieppe Raid?
- 5) What actually happened on August 19, 1942?
- 6) Describe the historical debate over the significance of the Dieppe Raid?

The Italian Campaign (Pg. 144)

- 7) Describe Winston Churchill's strategy for attacking the "soft underbelly of Europe," Sicily and Italy.
- 8) Describe the campaign in Sicily.
- 9) Describe the significance of the Battle of Sicily.
- 10) Describe the campaign in Italy.

D-Day: The Normandy Invasion

- 11) What happened on June 6, 1944?
- 12) Describe opening stages of Operation Overlord.
- 13) Describe the factors contributing to the success of Operation Overlord.

Juno Beach (Pg. 146)

- 14) Describe the involvement of Canadian troops at Juno Beach.

Battle of Scheldt (Pg. 147)

- 15) Describe the reaction of European civilians as the Allies slowly progressed towards Nazi Germany.

16) Describe significance the Battle of Scheldt.

Battle of the Rhineland (Pg. 147)

17) Describe the effort to push the German Army across the Rhine River.

18) Describe the task given to the Canadian Army.

19) Describe the conditions in the Netherlands.

20) Many travel writers recommend that Canadians wear a maple leaf when traveling through the Netherlands. Why is this good advice?

Victory in Europe (Pg. 148)

21) Explain why Nazi Germany surrendered on May 7, 1945?

22) Define . . . VE Day.

Japan Surrenders (Pg. 149)

23) Describe the situation in the Pacific in the middle of 1945.

24) Describe the Manhattan Project, and Canadian involvement in the program.

25) Describe the bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

The War Ends (Pg. 149)

26) Explain why Japan surrendered on August 14, 1945.